PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Instructional Designer with more than 15 years of experience designing, developing, facilitating, and evaluating learning programs for adult learners in federal, corporate, and international settings, including regulated, safety-critical energy operations. Works with Subject Matter Experts (SMEs) and leaders to build classroom, virtual, and computer-based courses using ADDIE and SAM, and evaluates learning using the Kirkpatrick Model to improve results. Recently designed and facilitated a live, in-person leadership workshop on AI Adoption through own consulting practice, Sicay Consulting. Holds an M.Ed. in Learning Design & Technology and is a Kirkpatrick Certified, MBTI® practitioner, and SDI facilitator.

- Course Design & Results: Raised cohort feedback scores by 25% to a 5.0/5.0 rating with a NERC- and PJM-compliant Operating Experience course, one of 10 System Operator courses designed at Dominion Energy.
- Instructional Consultation & Facilitation: Advise SMEs and leaders on adult learning, and facilitate in-person and virtual training on onboarding, communication, and AI.
- Learning Evaluation & Continuous Improvement: Use Kirkpatrick-based assessments and surveys to measure outcomes, refine courses, and report results.
